Customer Reviews

Stacey wants to get her boyfriend Robert a ticket for Broadway. But they are so expensive. So when there is a special job call for the BSC she takes it. But then Mrs. Cheplin, the client, starts giving Stacey this incredible list of housechores. And after awhile Stacey gets tired of it and does something she should have done at the beginning.

I did enjoy this book. I read it on a car trip and it actually kept me awake (car rides put me to sleep no matter what I am doing usually). I felt so bad for Stacy and I too have had babysitting clients who try to make me do house chores on top of watching the kids. You could really feel her stress in this and I loved to hate the women who she was working for. Definetly a good read if you're a fan of Stacy!

Stacey wants to buy a ticket for her and Robert, but it's expensive! So when a client hires her and gives her a hundred rules, she does something.
