Customer Reviews

This has been great dinner conversation for my family of five. Much easier for them to understand and simplifies the whole concept.

This book covers a lot of questions that I hadn't thought to answer, and also offers alternative viewpoints on those topics.

The best book I have ever read on religion targeted at the 9-14 year age group. My kids read it from cover to cover and then asked me why religion is not taught like this at their school (which is Catholic) Explains religion with honesty and humour, with very cool illustrations. Some very ignorant religious adults I know would benefit from having a read of it!

Being brave enough to talk through issues of faith and religion is good for kids. This book presents things very clearly.

just as described!
