Nemi (Volume 1) (v. 1)

Synopsis

Meet Nemi Montoya, the vegetarian, cynical/romantic, hilariously honest twenty-something goth, in this brand new collection from artist Lise Myhre! Hang out in the pub with Nemi and her friends, including her flatmate, the blue-haired Cyan; hear her opinions on romance and dating; watch her watch TV in her untidy flat; learn how she feels about birch trees, spiders and blondes; and generally experience the highs and lows of being Nemi in the modern world! A superstar in her native Norway thanks to the immense success of Nemi – also reprinted in the 1.12 million-circulation UK Metro newspaper – you too can enter Lise Myhre's witty, wonderful world!

Nemi is an excellent comic, but the translation is into British English, not American English. Most of the words make sense, but numerous British slang terms and references to British cultural institutions spoil some punchlines. This work merits translation into American English.

The sort of racy and risqué daily comic that American papers wouldn't look at twice, and frankly, it's their loss. Follow the adventures of fantastically perky Nemi Montoya as she navigates life, work, partying, sex, rock, and spectres of Alice Cooper, armed with little more than her razor wit and fertile imagination.

Loved it! The shipping was on time. The quality of the book was perfect, and not to mention the hilariousness inside was great as always from her party animal like ways to her goofy child sense. Everything you love about Nemi.

I love this comic series, and you should also get the second book! The two main characters are so loveable, especially if you are a 20 something chick. It reminds me of me and my friends sometimes, even though we are not goths. I gave it four stars only because for some reason, there are duplicates! Yeah! You would read a comic strip, and 20 pages later, there it is again. There are a few of those. It's a little annoying but I got over it because I just love these characters.

I discovered this comic by accident and was immediately hooked. Nemi is smokin' hot.

As a native Norwegian female reader in my twenties, I've followed Lise Myhre's Nemi for several years. Nemi is always funny to read, and some of the strips are hilarious! Although Nemi is best read in Norwegian, it's funny to read in English as well. Some of the points may be lost in translation, but that shouldn't stop you from discovering this interesting comic strip. Recommended for women that are 18 or older.
