Customer Reviews

At 15, I'm probably too old to fully enjoy the book, but it was pretty neat. This brother and sister are on a train in Australia when they come across a pair of bird smugglers who, realizing that someone knows about them, throw them from the train into the middle of the desert. Now they have to reach one of those radio stations scattered all about the desert to send for the police before the thieves get away. Suspense!

Donna Jo Napoli has written some terrific books for kids and young adults. This one just lacks the vibrancy of her usual writing. The plot is anemic compared to her usual compelling stories. Pick another one of her books.
