Synopsis

DOWNLOAD FOR FREE WITH KINDLE UNLIMITED In the final book of the Sedgewick sisters, find out what happens to Charlotte, the beautiful tomboyish, outspoken, middle sister nicknamed â€˜Charlieâ€™. Charlotte is glad to have her sisters visiting from their respective homes. It has been so lonely without them around. She observes her sisters and notices how much they have changed over the course of two years. She canâ€™t believe her sisters were so lucky to have such good marriages, blessed with adoring children. Charlotte confides in her two sisters the stress she has been feeling about marriage. She tells them that their mother has been pressuring her to find a husband. She absolutely detests this task. Why canâ€™t she just be a spinster and live happily surrounded by her books? Margaret laughs at her witty sister, and tells her gently that that just wonâ€™t do and she knows that. Charlie sighs. Of course she does. She doesnâ€™t want to be a burden to her parents. She needs to find a life of her own. But where to start? When Charlotte meets Harry Winthrop, the Duke of Harewood she is sure that she has seen the epitome of arrogance and conceit. However, that all changes when she learns what Harry did for her family.
