Customer Reviews

I heard Joan speak about spiritual giving at a ministry conference and then I bought this book. I came with a CD, too! After applying the principals for supernatural provision, I immediatly had a financial miracle! Huge too! In a slow real estate market, I sold a $3.5 million dollar house....a $140,000 commission! And gave 10% to the Kingdom of God immediately! Love this book! It changed my life!

It was a good book full of inspiring and motivating stories of how God helps us supernaturally with our finances. I liked when the author talks about using scripture to give offerings. I am using Deuteronomy 1:11 - May the LORD, the God of your ancestors, increase you a thousand times and bless you as he has promised!

I love this book is full of wisdom from the word of God, and the loving and clear way that is presented it makes you want to start praying without ceding in others' word, this book helps you to be a normal kingdom people. Read it, practice and see miracles happen, have a blessed experience amen

Great read! I have read many books on financial prosperity and I find this to be one of the best. It is Word based and written simply and practically.

As Christians we so often just expect our basic needs to be met and limit our requests to God our father who desires to give abundantly! Joan Hunter explains this in encouraging Biblical terms showing that our Heavenly Father desires us to ask expecting his abundant blessings in every area of our life so to be a blessing to others very well written especially for those turned off by the "blab it/grab it" approach.

This book has been a real eye opener as to how to sow in the Kingdom of Heaven. As a Christian we have principles and tools that can help us advance from glory to glory and from season to season. By applying the principles lined up within this book. I am seeing real results and beautiful miracles. Awesome. We serve a Mighty God! Thx Joan.

Joan is a gem and she actually practices what she teaches daily. Joan has been through the wringer and her testimony will leave you believing that you too can receive from God.

Joan offers practical ways and scripture passages that identify how you can claim your inheritance from God's Holy Kingdom. Sow your way to God's riches. He has only good things in store for you. She describes how she has used her faith to gain wealth. God owns all of the resources on earth and He will give you what you ask for...trust in Him.
